

Guntis KUZMA is the LNSO's conductor since the 2014/2015 season. Successful leadership in concerts with the LNSO, multiple collaborations with the Sinfonietta Rīga and Sinfonia concertante orchestra, the Liepāja SO, the JVLMA Orchestra, and the Latvian Festival Orchestra in summer, 2018. Guntis Kuzma and the LNSO's performance of Ādolfs Skulte's Symphony No. 5 received great prize in the Grand Concert of Latvian Symphony Music in January, 2018.

Assistant professor and head of the Woodwind Instrument Class at the Jāzeps Vītols Latvian Academy of Music. LNSO's principal clarinet from 2008 to 2014. Principal clarinet of the Sinfonietta Rīga since the orchestra's formation in 2006 until 2015. Enjoys performing in chamber music projects; a fan of contemporary music, he has performed the clarinet in premieres of several new works. Nominated for Latvia's Grand Music Award 2012 For Outstanding Work in an Ensemble. Awarded Grand Music Award in 2018 for the Outstanding Interpretation as conductor and clarinetist.